Women of the Bible

Part 6

Seeing Christ in the Lives of Women Who Walked with Him

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.
Hebrews 13:8 (NIV)

The story continues, because God is not finished revealing Himself.

Throughout Scripture, in every season and through every woman's journey, we see the golden thread of Christ: His mercy in brokenness, His nearness in uncertainty, and His faithfulness in every promise.

In Part 6 of our Women of the Bible Series, we will once again open the Word together and behold Christ through the lives of women who carried hope in difficult seasons, trusted Him in hidden places, and discovered His presence in unexpected ways.

Their stories remind us that God is still writing redemption into ordinary lives.
